Windy Thoughts

with Linda Hodge, Editor

Sharing a little more on our 2024 Elba Christmas Family... Neil and DeAnn each are Elba natives, and they are alumni of Elba City Schools. Parrish is currently a 5th grade student at Elba Elementary School. Neil owns an insurance business in Elba while DeAnn works closely with the City of Elba on various projects as an engineer through her employer. She also serves as a school board member on the Elba Board of Education. As these few tidbits show, their 'roots' run deep in Elba, and we congratulate them on being chosen as this year's Elba Christmas Family!

We are often asked what the status is with the Jack's Restaurant project for Elba. Well...the short of the story is that we understand the project is still in the works, but there have been some holdups that have put progress either behind or at a standstill for now. It is our understanding this has something to do with "legal" hiccups dealing with an easement onto the property. Recently, during a city council meeting, the mayor indicated that talks between the two sides had reached a point where a signature was all that was needed to get things rolling again. However, he said if that signature did not come, there would most likely be more delays due to even more lawyer talks, etc. We, personally, cannot understand why the ones holding up the project will not just do what needs to be done to make way for the project. We don't see how allowing the easement and construction of the Jack's could be anything but a positive for all...the people of Elba, the travelers through Elba, and, quite frankly, the businesses on the property. As we see it, they would benefit one another. Our hope is that the person who's signature was needed to get the ball rolling again has since signed the documents, and the mayor will have good news on that project at the next council meeting.

Recently, we noted the pressure washing working taking place on the sidewalks around the downtown square. That work was completed by the beginning of this month, and was a great uplift for the square. Now, the pressure washing has moved to the Pea River Bridge on Davis Street, and boy oh boy, is that creating an amazing difference in the appearance of the bridge! We just smile each and every time we cross the bridge and see how great it is looking! Again, we extend kudos to whomever decided the time was right to get this cleaning projects done. It was past time to do it, but we are just glad to see it being done now. It is a giant leap forward in making sure Elba looks as beautiful as we all know it can be!! Below is an example of the bridge work...just in case you have not seen it yourself already.

Sister had a birthday last week, and Cuzin Lou Lou "did good" with her birthday present!

Sister had mentioned a time or two that she wanted a new pair of gold hoop earrings. Well...jewelry is not Lou Lou's expertise area by any means, but she decided she was going to fulfill Sister's wish. The added complication to this - beyond Lou Lou not really knowing much about earrings because she does not wear them - was the fact that Sister has some allergy that requires her earrings to be real gold.

So...Lou Lou ventured out onto the 'ole internet to search for said earrings. She found a beautiful pair that Sister really loved!

The funny part to this story, however, is that Lou Lou admitted to Sister after she opened the gift that in all her nervousness about buying the jewelry she just knew she had gotten a good quality product. She knew this because she purchased from Kay, and "even the Hallmark channel shows off that Kay box before some guy asks his girl to marry him on their movies!"

Yep...that got an eyeroll and laugh from Sister! Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

Sheriff's Offices in Coffee and Pike counties to receive new technology equipment to help improve sex offender registration compliance

Sex offender registration and notification is a growing concern across Alabama as the number of registered sex offenders continues to rise.

This increase, coupled with the potential for recidivism, poses a significant risk to the safety of Alabama's residents, particularly children. In response to this challenge, Alabama has taken a critical step by becoming compliant with the federal Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA).

The Alabama District Attorneys Association and the Office of Prosecution Services are committed to supporting prosecutors and local law enforcement in enforcing SORNA in their jurisdictions to the fullest extent. To help strengthen this mission, District Attorney James Tarbox of the 12th Judicial Circuit (Coffee and Pike Counties) has selected the Coffee County Sheriff's Office and Pike County Sheriff's Office to receive new technology equipment, including a computer with a large screen monitor, iPad, and desktop document scanner. This equipment will help both of these agencies in streamlining their registration, notification, and compliance checks for sex offenders in Coffee and Pike Counties.

This initiative has been made possible through a United States Department of Justice grant (2020-AW-BX-006) awarded to the Alabama Office of Prosecution Services by the Office of Justice Programs, Office of Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering, and Tracking (SMART Office).

Ways to Remember Your Loved One During the Holidays
Dealing with grief and loss can be especially difficult during the holidays. Here are some ways to honor and remember loved ones who have passed away.
Add a special item to your holiday decorations specifically for your loved one. You might hang a stocking for them or set a place for them at your table. It could even be something simple like putting out a blanket that reminds you of them.
Look through old photos and share stories with other friends and family members. When you gather with family or friends, pull out old photos and pass them around. Share the memories and stories that are brought to mind.
Make a special place for people to write down memories. This could be as simple as a piece of paper and a marker. Or you could use a notebook, an empty gift box, or even an ornament or stocking.
Make a memory box. Have friends or family bring photos, letters, or small mementos that remind them of your loved one and make a memory box. You can also take turns sharing why each item is special and how it reminds you of that person as you place it in the box.
Take a trip. Go somewhere you've always wanted to travel or choose a location that reminds you of your loved one.
Cook their favorite dish or meal.
Make a special ornament. You can have a personalized one made with your loved one's name or picture, or you can make one yourself.
Take care of yourself. The most important thing is to remember to take care of yourself and pay attention to your needs. If you need to take a break and be alone, that is fine. If you'd rather be around friends and family, that is fine as well.
Taking some time to remember and honor your loved one can be healing and gratifying. Whatever you choose to do, remember that there is no right or wrong way to do it. Simply choose something that brings you joy and comfort during this holiday season.

Services, praised the program stating, "This grant provides updated technology to local law enforcement, enabling them to better monitor sex offenders and protect the citizens of Alabama."

District Attorney Tarbox stated, "I am grateful to the Association and Office of Prosecution Services for helping to provide these resources to local law enforcement. As the father of a young daughter, ensuring that our community's children are protected from sexual offenders and predators is one of my top priorities. This technology will help our local agencies continue their mission of protecting the residents of Coffee and Pike Counties."

In addition to bolstering Coffee and Pike Counties' ability to monitor and track sex offenders, this technology will strengthen the infrastructure for local law enforcement and enable more information-sharing capabilities across law enforcement agencies.

The 12th Circuit District Attorney's Office looks forward to continuing its partnership with local law enforcement to ensure the safety and security of the community and to protect our most vulnerable citizens, our children.

The True Light of Christmas

Hans Lilje tells the story of a Christmas he spent in a Nazi prison. The commandant took him from his place of solitary confinement to another cell, where he joined two other prisoners. One had a violin, and he played "Silent Night." One had a Bible, and he read the Christmas Story. Lilje spoke to them, recalling the sermon he had preached the previous year at Christmas. His text was, "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined" (Isaiah 9:2). He pointed out to his two fellow prisoners that since they had none of the decorations, none of the festivities, none of the feasts associated with Christmas, all they had left was Christmas itself. In the darkness of that cell, the abiding presence of Jesus Christ came shining through with brilliance and warmth. As Simeon's weary eyes gazed upon the babe he held in his arms, he praised God for allowing him this glimpse of His promised salvation. God had fulfilled His promise to all mankind by sending a beacon of hope into a world made dim through sin. Simeon then boldly proclaimed that this babe would light the way of salvation for all humankind. Praise God, that light shines upon us yet today! -T.T.

Our youngest grandson Cannon got in the Christmas spirit last week and carried the gifts to the tree after his Nanny finished her wrapping duties. I'm not that sure he really knows what is going on, but he loves to help and is a 'big boy' when his Nanny gives him a gift.

For what it is worth....

 The high school basketball season finally tipped off at Elba last week and while the Tigers dropped their opener, the Lady Tigers came out running and made it clear they are determined to make a third straight trip to the Final Four. The Tigers got off to slow start and never really recovered in their season-opening loss. However, it was easy to see Elba's roster is filled with talent and the Tigers should only get better and better as the players mold into a team and gain more experience on the court. The success on the football field put the Tigers a couple of weeks behind schedule, and while it may take some time to catch up, it looks like they should have no trouble being a team to be reckoned with once they settle in. The Lady Tigers were not at mid-season form in their season opening win, but as always used their quickness on both ends of the court and an aggressive defense to wear down their opponent. Elba may not have quite the depth of teams in the past, but have quality starters, and as the reserves grow as varsity players the Lady Tigers will only get better and better. I know Elba has only played one varsity game, but it looks like another fun season to be an Elba Tiger fan!

 The high school basketball season will slow down for some teams in the coming weeks and that makes it a good time to take a look around and measure just where the teams are after four weeks of play. On the boy's side, Brantley is off to a solid start and appears ready to make a run at an area title, while New Brockton has yet to put everything together, but should be a team to keep an eye in the 4A ranks; Kinston is much better than its record might indicate and will get better as the season rolls along; and, Zion Chapel is a dangerous team that can beat anybody on its schedule when it gets hot from behind the arc. Over with the girls, Kinston has opened the season with ten straight wins and is gaining more and more confidence every time it takes the court, while New Brockton is struggling to develop a personality and has many fans scratching their heads; Brantley is a good team that will battle for four quarters every night out; and, Zion Chapel is beginning to settle down and just may be the surprise team in the area.

 Many Elba Tiger fans were in front of their televisions on Friday and Saturday afternoon watching two of the program's all-time best players compete in the North-South All-Star game and the Alabama-Mississippi All-Star game. Cayden Adkins represented the Tigers in the North-South game and made a number of stops from his defensive-end position, while Alvin Henderson wore the black and gold helmet in the Alabama-Mississippi game and rushed for 1 yard on four carries and caught one pass for four yards in a game that turned into a highlight reel for two of the nation's top passers. Adkins was the 14th Elba Tiger to play in the annual all-star game and the first since back in 2021 when Chrystyle Caldwell was on the South roster. Other Elba Tigers that participated in the game over the years included Jimmy Bowdoin (1952), Thomas Prescott (1954), Roland Powell (1954), Marlin Dyess (1955), Charles Clark (1955), Jerome Ward (1967), Johnny Sharpless (1968), Leavy Boutwell (1970), Russ Wood (1978), Don Horstead (1980) and Carlos Matias-Aruz (2009). Henderson was only the third Tiger to make the roster for the Alabama-Mississippi game, with the other two Elba players to compete in the game being Troy Sanders (1987) and Anthony Brooks (1989). While Adkins and Henderson didn't get to put their name in the all-star game record books, they did etch their names in the rich history of Elba Tiger football and joined an elite fraternity.

 Juan Soto made Major League Baseball history recently when he signed a 15-year, $765 million contract with the New York Mets, and while the numbers are staggering anyway you look at them, when the money is broken down into categories based upon his last two seasons with the New York Yankees they are absurd! The 26-year-old played an average of 160 games per season the last two years, which would make his per game salary $320,000. He averaged 572 at-bats the last two seasons, which would be an at-bat salary of $89,161. He averaged 156 hits the last two seasons, which makes his per-hit salary $326,923. Other salary metrics based upon the last two seasons come out to $389,313 per walk, $411,290 per strikeout, $1,342,105 per home run, and $120,000 per hour. I guess it is safe to say it isn't just a game anymore!

 In closing....from The Mularz Family
MERRY CHRISTMAS to all!!!!

Win season opener

Lady Tigers run past G.W. Long 55-34

The Elba Lady Tigers tipped off the season Thursday night with a solid 55-34 home court win over the G.W. Long Rebels.

"I was proud of the effort given by all the players and though it was a positive start to the season," said Elba Lady Tiger head coach Stonewall Smith. "We wanted to dictate the tempo of the game on both ends of the court and felt like that was a key to being able to take charge early. The girls all played hard, especially on defense, and came up with turnovers that helped the offense get fast break points. We know we have a lot of work to do, but it was a good start and feel like we will only get better as the season progresses." Elba looked a little shaky early on the offensive end of the court and owned a slim 12-7 lead after the first quarter, but A'Lyric Whitfield and Nyasia McCollough combined for 12 points in the second quarter as the Lady Tigers opened up a 29-20 halftime advantage. Whitfield poured in 10 points in the third quarter as Elba stretched its lead to 44-27, and the Lady Tiger reserves hit the court for much of the final stanza and closed the book on the 55-34 win.

A'Lyric Whitfield scored 31 points to lead the Lady Tigers, while Nyasia McCollough added 10, and Ana Caldwell and Ayrika Caldwell both scored 4 points. Kaylie Foster scored 17 points to lead G.W. Long, and Kaylie Joseph added 11.

Tigers drop opener to G.W. Long 60-44

The Elba Tigers tipped off their season Thursday night with a 60-44 home court loss to the G.W. Long Rebels.

"It was a typical first game in that we didn't really know how good we were or what we could do until we got on the court against an opponent," said Elba Tiger head coach Harry Griffin. "Now we know where we need to spend some extra time and have a better idea of our roster and who can fill certain roles. We were disappointed in a couple of areas and expected to play a little better, but now we just get back to work and develop into a team."

The Tigers got off to fast start as Javante Griggs and Jay Wilson combined to drain three three-pointers in the opening quarter. However, the Elba offense struggled to put the ball in the hoop in the second quarter and was outscored 23-8 to head into the half trailing 42-21. Emmanuel Cooks got inside for four points in the third quarter and the Tigers tightened up on the defensive end in the second half in holding the Rebels to a total of 18 points, but could never really threaten and dropped their season opener 60-44. Javante Griggs scored 14 points to lead Elba, while Jay Wilson and Trai Davis added 7 points, apiece, and Jacob Watkins scored 6. Zamarvin McLeod scored 19 points to lead G.W. Long, while Jaylon Hickerson added 12 and Preston Williams scored 10.

(JV Boys)

The Elba Tigers got off to a slow start and never recovered in a 43-16 loss to the G.W. Long Rebels. Elba managed only one basket in the first quarter and added only one point in the second quarter to trail 24-3 at the half, and even though the Tigers battled until the final horn they never threatened in the 43-16 loss.

Levi Martin scored 5 points to lead Elba, while Kyavian Stoudemire added 4, Easton McKelvy added 3 and Powell Bane and Bryson Burks both scored 2 points.

Dear Santa,
I've been a good girl. This year, I love you and your elf. I'm going to leave you some milk and cookies and I hope you leave me a Barbie cutie reveal, a candy cane, and a play kitchen.
Love, Clara Belle Parrish

Dear Santa,
I try really hard to be good. Please get me a Big Monster Truck with horns. My mommy & daddy say if I'm really good you might bring me a black motorcycle bike that does tricks. Please bring my sissy a beaver gun, a pink gun for mommy, and a bunch more cows for my best friend, my daddy. Also, I will try not to eat the snacks for you, Rudolph, & all your reindeer. I love you, Santa.
Colie Austin Boutwell

Dear Santa,
I have been a very good little boy. I would love to have a ride on toy, ball pit, and all the push toys. Don't forget about my brothers they have been good too.
Love, Ty Mehaffey

Dear Santa,
I think I've been good this year, but I don't know. I want a little bike with a thing on the back for my baby doll and the nail polish I saw at Bucci's. Ho Ho Ho Merry Christmas Santa!
Love, Byrdie Forbes

Dear Santa,
My name is Tilly and it's my very first Christmas! I have been very good this year. For Christmas, I'd love some fun toys I can play with, maybe something that makes silly noises or lights up. I'll make sure I go to bed nice and early on Christmas Eve and sleep all night ready for your arrival!
Lots of Love, Tilly Renfro

Dear Santa,
I've been just a little bit good so I would really love a Barbie dream house and purple scooter. But throw in some Barbie kids, Barbie cars and all the Barbie cats and dogs. Please and thank you.

Love, McKinnly Grace McCollough

Dear Santa,
I'm just starting to figure out who you are. My sisters tell me that you will bring me presents if I'm good. I can't make any promises but I'll try if you could bring me anything with Bluey on it, a new baby doll with a bottle, and something to climb on to get all my energy out. I will be a very happy little girl on Christmas morning. Thanks big guy!
Love, Adelaide Mauldin
